State Says "No" To Cedar Rd.-FAI-80 Interchange

Several grade separations are scheduled in FAI-80 plans for the area for this and the next year but it will be 1967 before bids are taken on the construction of the highway between U.S. 30 just east of Joliet and Harlem ave.

This information was given by officials of the Illinois division of highways from the Elgin district office at a meeting in Joliet last Friday.

J. H. Dinkheller, district engineer, also said that no further consideration would be given to a proposed interchange where I-80 will cross Cedar road north of New Lenox. The New Lenox Association of Commerce, the village council, and township officials are all on record as favoring such an interchange. The township voted money at the regular town meeting last month to hire an engineer to prepare figures showing why an interchange on Cedar road would serve the area best. Dinkheller said that in rural areas -- and added that New Lenox was considered such -- interchanges were spaced at least eight miles apart. Supervisor John Francis says that the interchange proposed for U.S. 30 west of New Lenox is nine miles from the one on U.S. 45.

The New Lenox group also contends that an interchange with I-80 on Cedar road would also serve as access to the proposed north and south expressway that will junction with I-80 north of New Lenox.

The state engineers disagree, claiming an interchange on Cedar road would be difficult to find for travelers on Rt. 30 seeking access to I-80, and that Cedar road itself was inadequate to handle the volume of traffic it would get, and couldn't be upgraded because there were no funds for such work.

A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of Lincoln-Way high school and chairman of the special I-80 committee of the New Lenox Association of Commerce delivered a letter to Mr. Dinkheller setting forth the Association's views on establishing an interchange on Cedar road.

Township officials contend that in designating New Lenox as rural the engineers considered census figures of 1950.

Asked after the meeting if the state has any plans for widening U.S. 30 between Gougar road and Cicero ave., Mr. Dinkheller said there are no funds for such an undertaking; neither is there any money to remedy the dangerous intersection of U.S. 45 and the Wilmington-Peotone blacktop where over the years there has been a heavy death toll. He said there were at least 500 such situations in the state.

It was stated at the meeting, however, that $240,000 is to be spent on making the intersection of U.S. 66-A and Illinois 53 safer for motorists. There have been 23 accidents at that intersection in the last three years, it was said, but no comment was made as to whether any of them had been fatal.

The state plans to relocate the Gougar-U.S. 30 intersection later but in the meantime traffic lights are to be installed there by the city of Joliet. Washington street, now a mass of holes, is to be resurfaced from the vicinity of U.S. 30 and York ave. in downtown Joliet. There is also a possibility that Route 30 may be widened between Gougar and the interchange with I-80 east of Providence high school.

Considerable right-of-way for I-80 in this area must still be obtained it was said, and Dinkheller said that plans for the highway in this area were still to be completed. That is one reason why bids will not be taken until 1967 on most of this work, it was pointed out.

I-80 will eventually connect New York and San Francisco. It was planned as a need for the defense system of the United States and will serve as the gateway, both for the east and west, to the "Ruhr Valley of North America," as the vast industrial complex on the Illinois-Indiana borders is known.

The Illinois division of highway engineers appeared in Joliet at the invitation of the street and highway committee of the Joliet Chamber of Commerce and spoke at a luncheon meeting in D'Amico's 214. There was a capacity crowd with many in attendance from the Mokena-Frankfort-New Lenox area.

State engineers will discuss service road to be built in area as part of the I-80 program at a meeting in the Exhibition building at the Francis 4-H Field, Francis rd., tomorrow morning. The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m.

Fred Lembke, Former Town Assessor, Dies

Paul Lembke, 75, a former assessor of Frankfort township and a resident of Mokena for the past 15 years, died Sunday, May 2, at Joliet.

He made his home at Mokena with a son, Roy Lembke. Prior to moving to Joliet, Mr. Lembke farmed in the Alpine area for many years. He operated the Alpine Orchards.

He was assessor from 1954 thru 1956, and was one of the early members of the Mokena volunteer fire department.

His wife, Anna, died 12 years ago, and a son, Howard, died in 1957.

Besides his son Roy, Mr. Lembke is survived by a daughter, Anna, Mrs. August Ross, of LaGrange, five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Removal was to the Sonntag, Burgess and Wylie funeral home, 221 Herkimer st., Joliet. Services will be held this afternoon (Thursday) at 2 o'clock at St. John's United Church of Christ, Mokena, with the Rev. Theodore Wimmeler officiating. Interment will be in Fairmount cemetery, Willow Springs.

Receive Honors

Three former Lincoln-Way students received honors at the annual University of Illinois Honors Day, April 30.

U. of I. sophomore Sandra Gregory of New Lenox received college honors because her scholastic records rank her in the top three per cent of her class. Betty Mitchell and Thomas Ricketts, a sophomore and senior respectively, each received class honors is recognition for achieving upper ten per cent rating in their classes.

Book Rental Fee To Be $9.50 in Mokena Schools

At the annual organizational meeting of the Mokena school board Norval Robinson was re-elected president and Ray Toppen, secretary.

This will be the fourth consecutive year Robinson has been head of the board and it will be Toppen's second year as secretary.

The 1965-66 school calendar, which is the same for Lincoln-Way high school and the underlying grade schools, was adopted. It calls for school to begin Aug. 31 and close June 7. There will be three teacher workshop days and 179 pupil attendance days for a total of 182 days. The state law requires a minimum of 180 school days a year.

Because of increased cost of books the book rental fee for next year is up a dollar, from $8.50 to $9.50. However, dictionaries will be included in the rental for pupils of grade one thru six. Heretofore, parents had to purchase dictionaries. Seventh and eighth grade pupils will still have to provide their own dictionaries but if the school's recommendation is followed such dictionaries can be used thru high school and even college it was said.

Supt. James Ennis stated that to keep the rental cost as low as $9.50, it will be necessary to amortize the hardback textbooks over a four-year period. Previously a three-year plan had been used. Taking good care of the books will be a necessity, it was said. Consumable workbooks costs procedure will remain the same; the school will charge parents exactly what it must pay the book companies.

The board approved a contract for Mrs. Wilma Wegler, speech correction teacher. She will be returning for her third year in the area. She also teaches in the Arbury Hills, Frankfort, and Manhattan schools. They all share in the cost of the program.

Six new teachers will be needed at Mokena next year, the superintendent reported, because of resignations and the need for additional teachers due to increase in enrollment.

Hold Law-Loyalty Day Program At Lincoln-Way

Respect for law and loyalty to our nation and the principles upon which it is founded are a necessity if our form of government is to endure, was the message brought to Lincoln - Way high school students at the annual Law - Loyalty day program held in the gymnasium there last Friday under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The Harry E. Anderson post of New Lenox and William Martin post of Mokena, with their ladies auxiliaries, had charge of arrangements, with Harold L.

Dailey, of New Lenox, as chairman, assisted by William Burkhardt, of Mokena.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Andre Schlueder, O.F.M. of St. Jude church, and the speakers included Martin J. Gleason of Joliet, State's Attorney George E. Sangmeister, of Frankfort township, and Arthur J. Muller, VFW past department commander of Illinois. Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, of Lincoln - Way accepted a variation of the painting, "The Wall", from the artist, Will Harder, of New Lenox. This picture of the Communist - built wall in Joliet was presented to the school by the Lincoln - Way History Club who commissioned Harder to paint it.

Ralph Sherman, of the WJOL staff, who served as master - of - ceremonies pointed out that Americans generally take our way of life for granted and that Law - Loyalty Day would be a good time to renew one's pledge of loyalty to the nation.

The Lincoln - Way chorus under Tom Olson, and the high school band, directed by Robert Taylor, provided music appropriate to the program.

Respect or disrespect of the law is usually formed when one is of high school age, State's Attorney Sangmeister stated, and such an attitude is held for life.

Gleason, who is owner and operator of a Chicago business firm and an active figure in politics, told of his encounters with communism while on his business travels in Cuba, Yugoslavia and East and West Germany. His guide on his tour of East Berlin, Gleason said, was 18 or 19 years old and thoroly indoctrinated with Party teachings that give him answers for all of Gleason's questions but one.

"Why", asked Gleason, "if life behind the 'wall' was so idealistic in every respect, why day after day were people using every means conceivable to get over, get under, or get thru that ugly barrier?"

His guide had no answer to that one, Gleason stated. Representatives from various veterans organizations in Will county were present at the program.

St. Mary Parish Plans Two-Day Rummage Sale

Telephone: 479-3521

Spring cleaning usually means rummage sale time, and this year is no exception for the members of St. Mary's parish. The big spring sale will take place in the gym on May 13 and 14, from 10 a.m. 'til 4 p.m., both days. White elephants and usable clothing will be high lighted at the selling tables. A rummage sale is an excellent place to find such things as overshoes and ice skates still in good condition but too small for their present owners. A spring sale usually produces sweaters and winter garments as well as spring and summer clothing that was put away last year with the intention of being worn a few more times.

Many large organizations and churches hold rummage sales for the purpose of fund raising and over the years have gained reputations for the quality of merchandise offered to the public. St. Mary's hopes to build such a reputation.

The sale is being organized by Mrs. Charles Rogal, acting as chairman, with an able and experienced committee to see that things go along smoothly. She promises to find the items that are needed in most cases because her stock will be unusually large for this spring sale. She is accepting donations of used clothing and cast off articles from anyone desiring to clean closets or replacing articles of which they may have grown tired. Her telephone number is 479-9554. A pick up service is available.

Installation of officers and program convention reports will be conducted when members of the Mokena Woman's club meets Monday, May 10 in the home of Mrs. Walter Welsch at 8 p.m.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Florence Neithammer and Mrs. George Sangmeister Jr.

The past officers luncheon has been announced as Wednesday, June 9 at Jardine's restaurant, Tinley Park.

The card party held April 20 by the Mokena Republican Womens Club was well attended and very much enjoyed by all. There were tables of bridge, pinochle, poker and bunco, and prizes were given to the winner and loser at each table.

After the prizes were distributed, the guests enjoyed delicious homemade cakes, cookies and coffee.

The Mokena Volunteer Fire Department auxiliary meeting was held April 27 with 13 members attending.

Food preparations for the firemen's pinochle party and dance were discussed. At the pinochle party ham sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served. At the dance, roast beef sandwiches etc. Refreshments were served by Georgia Bernard and Donna Mangun.

Winners for bunco were Phyllis Koerner, Carole Craigmile, Cordie Bohmann and Phyllis Rust.

The Green Stamp project means rummage sale time, that the parishioners of St. Mary's are now saving stamps and coupons of all kinds in order to furnish desks and equipment in the new addition. Dr. Eleanor Hamilton is in charge of this undertaking and is doing a remarkable job. It is fascinating to watch the results obtained in a co-operative effort such as this one. Pretty soon the rooms will be furnished with new equipment - purchased painlessly through the help of so many interested participants.

Girl Scout Troop 97 held a small furniture and bake sale Saturday, May 1 at the VFW hall.

Mothers that helped during the sale were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Snow, Mrs. Melvin Moutrie, Mrs. John O'Connor and Mrs. Fred Clark.

The sales netted the scouts $80.

Robert DeForest and his Ron, took all left over furniture and household items to the Salvation Army in Joliet.

The Womens Missionary Society of the Parkview Baptist church will hold its annual Mother - Daughter dinner Friday, May 7 at 6:30 p.m.

The guest speaker will be the Dean of women at Moody Bible Institute, Mrs. Lennelle E. Ballback.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

The annual Mother - Daughter banquet of St. John's United Church of Christ will be May 14 at 7 p.m. in the church parlors. A roast beef dinner will be served. Advance reservations and purchase of tickets is necessary. Those planning to attend should contact either Mrs. Kenneth Bohmann, 479-9310 or Mrs. Roy Koerner, 479-4481. A mens quartet will also be on the program, comprised of Lloyd Tomany, Roy Kohl, Ernest Westphal, and Oliver Kiesler.

The Willow Run Ladies' Golf Club got off to a flying start last Thursday. A large group played and many played 18 holes and again over the weekend establishing their handicaps. Balls for prizes will be awarded next week. We needed one day to get in trim.

Grace Mitchell reports that we will start match play on the first Thursday in June. So get ready girls.

We had a Hard - Luck - Jane already. She ran into trouble on #2 by landing in the water twice. Then she sashayed from sand trap to sand trap. She was pretty disgusted but determined to pull out of her hard luck on #3 when she slipped in crossing the improvised bridge that John had provided for us and landed in the mud. Her slacks were mighty uncomfortable for a time before they dried. By this time she was so frustrated that she putted her partner's ball on #3 green. Now she definitely thought it was one of those days when she wished she had stayed in bed. On

Mr. and Mrs. John Meske of Mt. Prospect, Illinois, with their two daughters, Jody, 8 and Gail, 13.

"We've had electric heat 3 years-for comfort and economy you couldn't want anything better"...report Mr. and Mrs. John Meske

"In our home, the bedrooms, living room—dining room, bath and kitchen, are all good-sized rooms. Last year, with electric heat, we paid only $175 to heat our 5-room home. And electric heat is so clean. In the three years we've lived here, we haven't had to buy a can of paint or even wash the walls."

□ What's more, like the Meskes, you'll find electric heat has a lot of other outstanding advantages. For example, it's 100% efficient, no heat is lost up the chimney. Each room has its own individual thermostat. You can set the temperature at 80° in the bathroom, 72° in the living room, 65° in the bedroom, all at the same time. Electric heat rates have been cut 50% since 1958. Get the facts on electric heat. Call your nearest Public Service Company Office for details, today. © C. E. Co.

Police Group Opposes Amending Juvenile Act

At a recent meeting of the Police Administrators Association of Greater Will County a resolution was adopted opposing certain provisions of the pending legislation which will amend the Juvenile Court Act of Illinois.

The police association believes the proposed bill (H.B.513) will place unnecessary and unreasonable restrictions on law enforcement officers since it will: (a) Provide that the taking of a juvenile into custody will not be considered an arrest, except for the purpose of a civil suit for false arrest.

(b) Prevent the taking of a juvenile to the States Attorney's office, jail or any police station, other than that of the officer taking him into custody.

(c) Prevent the use of any statement, admission or confession in court, regardless of how voluntary, unless made in the presence of a parent or lawyer.

Unless these provisions are deleted from the bill, the police association urges the defeat of the bill, in the interest of the general public.

TOMORROW IS CIRCUS DAY at Mokena's Willowcrest school. The dog, on whose head the man is doing a balancing act, is no iron nor wood device but a real live, flesh and blood poodle. There are many trained dogs and acrobats with Borger Bros. circus that is giving two performances at the school May 7, the matinee at 4 o'clock and the evening show at 8:00. Proceeds will go to the Mokena public school bleacher fund. The man in the picture is John Baker. The dog is a member of the Arwoods Poodle troupe.

Eagle Nine Second In Conference Standings

BY BILL KAROLICH
The Eagle baseball team concluded their first half of the season with a five win, two loss record. They are tied for second place with Evergreen Park.

Tuesday, April 27, Roland Roth pitched a three hit shutout over the Reavis Rams. He struck out four and walked four. The Eagles had only two hits, but they capitalized on their breaks. Roland Roth walked. Tom Hofferica was safe on a fielders choice. Hofferica stole second, and then pranced home for the game's only run on Jerry Knapp's hit to center. The victory was Roth's first of the year.

April 28, was a big day for the Eagles. They played top ranked Evergreen Park. Sophomore pitching wizard, Don Urbanciz, raised his record to four wins and no defeats with a dazzling four hit shutout. Urbanciz also is the leading batter on the team. He kept his mark at .333 with a hit in the top of the sixth inning. This hit drove in both runs for the Eagles. The final score; Sandburg 2, Evergreen Park 0.

April 30, the Eagles turned eight Oak Lawn errors into eight runs, defeating the Spartans 8-2. Roland Roth was unable to go the distance, and needed relief help from Ed Peterson. Peterson and Roth gave up only two hits between them. Peterson has now given up only one earned run in 13 innings.

The Eagle bats came alive Friday, April 30. They hit their season high of nine hits, with Al Ivins and Phil Aliano getting two hits apiece. Jerry Knapp drove in two runs.

The sophomore baseball was smashed by Reavis 11-1, but came back strong against Evergreen Park winning 6-1 behind the pitching of Jim Polaski. Polaski seems to be the only consistent pitcher on the squad. Mike DePeder hit a home run and added a couple of singles during the week. He is leading the sophomore baseball team in hitting.

The freshman nine dropped their second game of the season, losing a heartbreaker to Lockport Central 2-1.

The varsity baseball is just starting to get rolling. This week they play Lincoln-Way, Homewood Flossmoor, and Bremen. Lincoln-Way and Bremen are the Eagles only defeats so far this season. The Eagles would like sweet revenge against these two.

Coach Eade may not have a hitting ball club, (team average .153), but he has probably the three best pitchers in the area. These three pitchers (Ed Peterson, Roland Roth, and Don Urbanciz) have a combined earned run average for ALL games of 1.45. They have struck out 66 batters against 36 walks.

L-W Loses To Braves But Routs Viking Nine

BY NORM BEEBE
Lincoln-Way conceded its fourth straight conference loss when the Bremen Braves shut out the Knights 3-0, leaving the Braves at the top of the conference standings with a respectable 5-1 record.

Bremens Steve Snyder took the game's honors by pitching the complete game of seven innings, giving up only six hits, walking four and striking out eight. Jon Davis took the game's loss by pitching four innings, giving up four hits, walking three and striking out five. Mike Derrig completed the final innings for the Knights.

Bremen's first run came in their half of the second inning when Tom Anderson earned a walk to first base and later advanced to third by a single off the bat of Leo Reedzki. An attempt to steal second by Reedzki was cut short by Keith Schram, but in the meantime Anderson used the opportunity to come home. Two additional runs by the pitcher Snyder and shortstop Weiler, clinched a victory for the Braves.

Only one time in the course of the game did the Knights pose any threat to the Braves, but with Snyder's superior pitching ability the Lincoln-Way threat was quickly cut down.

The Knights really showed their stuff at Homewood last Friday when they trampled over the Vikings 13-3. With this important victory, the Knights boosted their conference record to 3-4 and their overall record to 4-4.

Mike Derrig accepted the game honors by going all seven innings, giving up only six hits, walking three and striking out 13.

Portelli was charged with the loss for the Vikings. He too pitched the entire 7 innings of play, giving up 14 hits, walking one and striking out 6.

Larry Sorenson's hot bat led the Knights to this victory. Larry slammed four hits for four at bats, knocked in four Lincoln-Way runs and scored once himself. Of the four hits by Sorenson, two were singles, one a double and one a triple.

Other outstanding hitters for the Knights were Paul Schubert, Dale Ebert, Larry Resutko, and the pitcher Mike Derrig. All of these players were credited with two hits each.

Homewood's six hits came off the bats of Belmata, Bates, Ginter, Clark, Garritt and Claw.

GARDEN AND HOME IMPROVEMENT

IMPROVE YOUR HOME... IMPROVE YOUR LIVING

Spring's a good time to make repairs and improvements inside and outside your home. Now's the right time to start making plans. And, here's a section filled with helpful ideas . . . Turn the page . . .

A GRAPHIC NEWSPAPER SUPPLEMENT

Designs And Makes Own Furniture

A great many suburban homeowners find relaxation and satisfaction in do-it-yourself home improvement and fix-it projects, but few can equal the versatility and dexterity of George Minard, 5656 W. 175th st., Tinley Park.

George is a real handy man in the fix-it department. He can and has repaired about everything from a talking doll to the electric clothes dryer. Plumbing and electrical chores he can handle with ease; however, his main interest lies in designing and making furniture.

He first started making furniture as a hobby about ten years ago while the Minards were living in California. He acquired a shop smith and made a sewing table for his wife, Fran, for her birthday. He now has a complete home workshop that fills half of his garage.

Unable to find the kind and size dining room table they wanted, George made one and even developed his own stain resistant finish that defies abuse. Their home is furnished in early American style, so most of his woodwork is done in maple with a honey tone finish.

He has made lamp tables, coffee table, spice rack, and other items, and is presently working on bedroom furniture for the new home they are building in Lemont. Besides furniture for his own home, he makes items for friends and as gifts.

Knowing that George had spent some time in the Navy, we inquired if he had learned woodwork there or in school and found out that it was neither place. It is a completely self taught accomplishment. He, however, not only did a three year hitch in the Navy, but a year after his discharge he enlisted for three years as a paratrooper with the 82nd airborne division. He has been a pharmacist, a lab technician, and studied architectural drafting at Chicago Technical college. For the past five years he has been employed at Argonne National Laboratory where he is engaged in electrical drafting.

Mrs. Minard and his four daughters are also avid do-it-yourselfers. Mrs. Minard bakes, sews, crochets, and knits. With four daughters, she said she found sewing an economical necessity and makes most all the girls clothing as well as her own, some of which she designs.

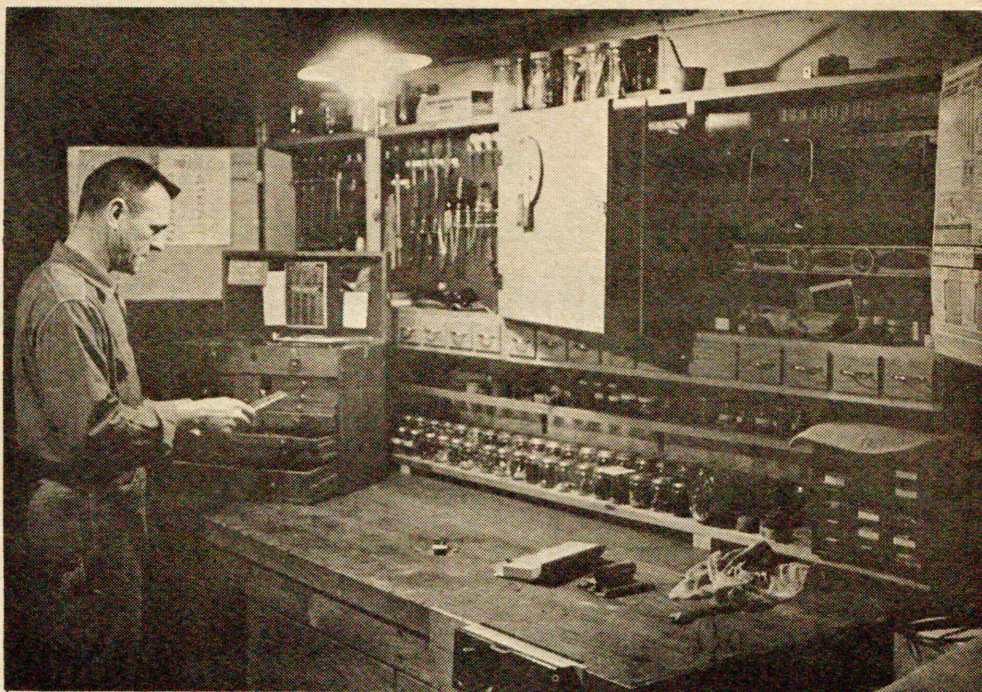

Fran Minard is one of the few women who still prefers baking and cooking to defrosting. Although she sometimes buys store bread, she still bakes her own quite often, also cookies and pastries. A real specialty is her home made noodles.

The girls, Penny, 15, Sandy, 14, Georgia, 13, and Marilyn, 10, like their mother, can all bake and sew and enjoy doing it. The older girls now make some of their own clothes and all of the girls make most of their gifts for Christmas and Birthdays as well as holiday decorations.

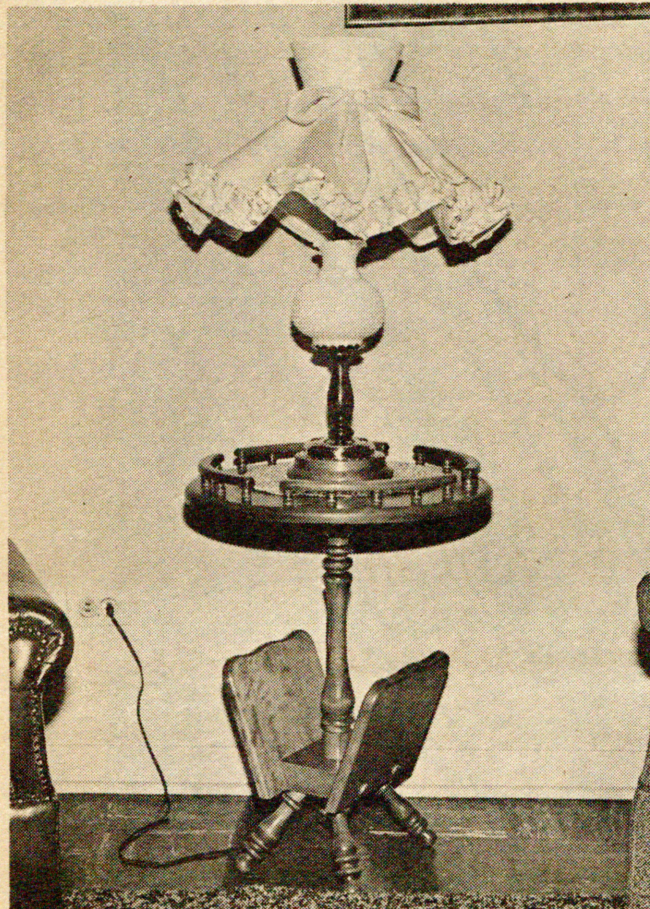

Gardening is a family project and on their half acre lot they have managed to have a fair sized garden to furnish fresh vegetables all summer with a surplus to freeze or can for the winter.

The whole family also shares in the excitement of the new house they are building. George designed the three bedroom ranch style home and drew all the plans and specifications. The house will have a basement workshop with ample room for him to build furniture.

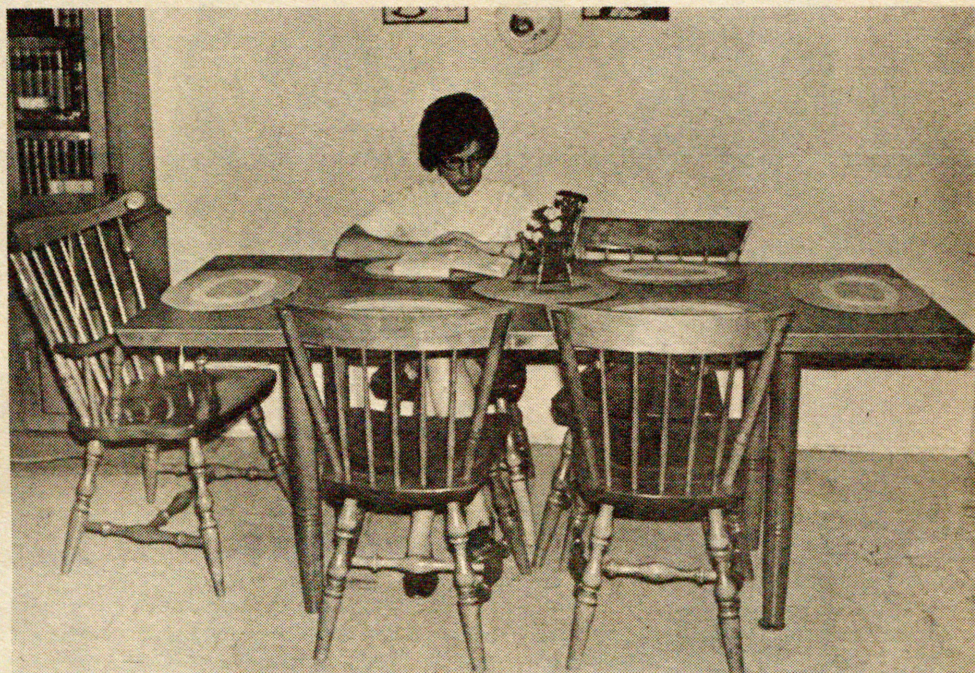

It is designed in an H shape with a 24 foot living room in the center. There will be a field stone fireplace in the living room and one with an open hearth in the kitchen. Both the interior and exter-

WORKBENCH - George Minard carefully puts tools away as he finishes using them. Keeping tools handy and easy to locate is no problem with this workbench that George designed and built. The cabinets and drawers provide a place for each tool and jars hold screws and small items all carefully sorted. A true craftsman, George takes good care of his equipment. (Graphic Newspaper Photos)

ORIGINAL DESIGN - George Minard designed and made this maple lamp table to match the early American furnishings in the Minard home at 5656 W. 175th st., Tinley Park. A special feature is the magazine rack at the base of the table.

FOCAL POINT - The dining room table that George made when he and Fran were unable to find what they wanted in the store serves the family not only at meal time but is the focal point of much activity. Here Penny, 15 the oldest daughter, is doing her homework. It is also where plans were made for their new home to be built in Lemont.

ior walls will be of rustic red cedar logs that are being shipped from the state of Washington. The house will have a shake shingle roof. Decorations and furniture will be early American.

The heavy construction work will be contracted as will some of the plumbing and heating installation, but the do-it-yourself Minard family will finish the interior, make the cabinets, shelves, curtain, and other small items. They hope to move into their dream home this summer.

HOMEMADE BREAD - The Minard family loves mom's homemade bread and here Fran is taking two golden brown loaves from the oven. Although she no longer bakes all the bread they eat, she still finds time to make it quite often as well as to bake homemade cookies and other goodies.

SEWING TABLE - Marilyn, age 10 and the youngest of the four Minard girls, is handy at decorations and is shown here arranging flowers to sit on the sewing table which was the first piece of furniture that her father made ten years ago as a birthday gift for her mother.

HAND CROCHETED - Fran Minard, who enjoys sewing, knitting and crocheting, made this crocheted chevron patterned afghan in her spare time in the evenings. It took her about a month to crochet and it is used on a high backed maple rocker in her living room.

Patio Benches Add to Charm

Does your patio look sort of lonesome when the furniture is taken in?

Then, here's a way to make it stand out in your garden as an attractive installation. All you have to do is to install some permanent backless garden benches around two sides of the patio, at the edge.

These benches will give a definitive border to the patio. They will give it another dimension and will instill character.

Introduce New Shelter Tone Paints

"America's exterior house paint colors have new vibrance and versatility for '65," said Bill Bergman of S. A. Bergman Paint and Wallpaper Store. A new collection ... the shelter tones ... adds wide possibilities for distinctive decoration and a new dimension of flexibility to exterior finishes.

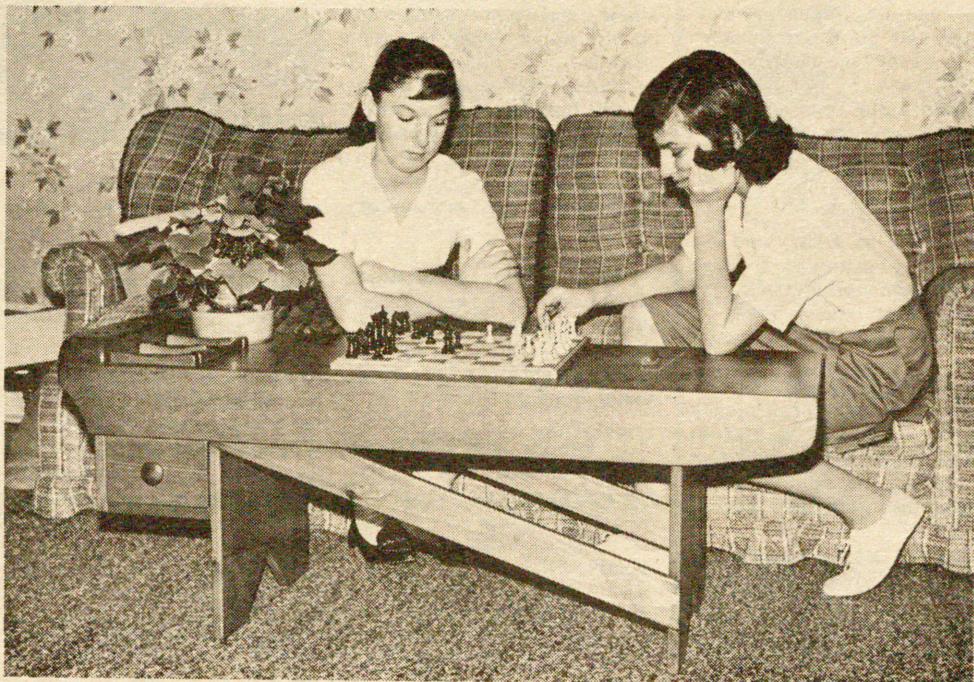

The Shelter Tones, introduced into the paint picture this Spring by The Martin Senour Paint Company are available at Bergman's.

They offer: An unusual range of 250 individual colors; application on many kinds of exterior materials; availability in several types of paint; true color matching across the house no matter what combinations of building materials or types of paint; color permanence and modern pigments and vehicles for better performance.

The new colors rainbow across a range from the pastels to the deep tones, notably filling a gap in the earth tones such as golds, olive greens, copper, hot browns, bronze and charcoals.

They team up with the naturalistic house materials ... natural wood, stone and brick. And for the traditionalists, shelter tones include off whites and a variety of

It is not, of course, suggested that backless benches are the only solution to this problem. You can have benches with sloping backs, and for the lazy at heart, these are much more comfortable.

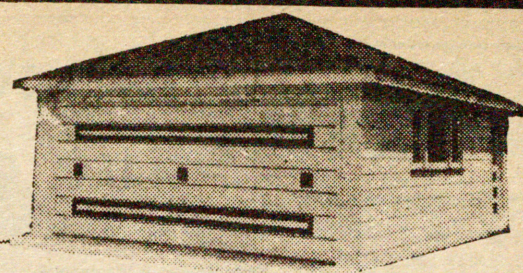

DUAL PURPOSE -- This unique coffee table made by George Minard doubles as a game table for daughter Georgia, 13, and Sandy, 14, as they compete in a friendly game of chess. (Graphic Newspaper Photo)

What do you build these benches of? Ordinary lumber, like Douglas fir framing lumber. You can make the end plates of the benches out of 2x12 lumber, and the frames out of 2x4. The seat can be merely made of well sanded 2x4s, or you might wish to have something a bit more artistic. One suggestion is to use 1x4s placed on edge, with a spacing about washer thin, and then bend them to suit your taste. The cost of these benches, especially if the home owner can do the work, is less than individual lawn chairs would be, and they have the added advantage of being permanent fixtures, bolted to the patio deck.

"The growing awareness of the beauty and distinction added by exterior colors and the increased use of a variety of building materials challenged Martin Senour to develop the enlarged color range and width of choice," explained Bergman.

Selecting and buying nails for your handyman projects can sometimes seem more difficult than the project itself.

It is quite embarrassing to walk into a hardware or lumber store and hem and haw while you and the clerk try to determine what size nails you need and how many you want to buy.

Nails are referred to as two-penny, six-penny, etc. on up to 60-penny. This indicates the size of the nail and is abbreviated with the letter "d". Therefore, a 2d nail is a two-penny nail. Keep this handy reference chart for determining your own future nail needs.

Landscaping Increases Value of Property

Landscaping increases the salability of the property and adds to its permanent value.

Banks, and other mortgage lenders, increasingly are including costs of landscaping in the original mortgage. Planned landscaping for permanent values helps to provide many advantages not readily apparent, such as control of soil erosion, better drainage, and conservation of water. Land values are usually higher when lakes and ponds are nearby to encourage recreation.

Landscaping can provide for micro-climate control through the planting of proper trees in proper locations to provide beauty, serve as windbreaks, for shade and other purposes on the home property. Utilities can be placed underground for better appearance of the development. Beauty of the property and comfortable outdoor living are prime considerations in landscaping according to consumer surveys.

The American Association of Nurserymen has worked out a standard for home landscaping which shows the elements entering into such landscaping as follows:

1. Design and composition, including good taste and maintenance.
2. Plants and related materials.
3. Installation.

Installation requires molding and shaping of the land, soil stability and livability of property, planned planting at the proper depths according to sound horticultural practices and many other similar requirements. This helps to maintain values in future years.

Design includes the proper scale and proportion as it relates to placing and spacing of trees and shrubs for beauty, shade, garden living, climate control and other aspects of desirable landscaping.

Thor Tip -- When driving nails you will be amazed at how much easier it is when you drill a pilot hole first. Needless to say, this also eliminates most dangers of splintering and cracking the wood.

(Address handyman problems to Thor Center for Better Living, Aurora, Illinois 60507).

Long Life

Two of the best ways to get good life from your home are to use quality materials to begin with, and provide proper maintenance week-by-week.

LOOKS NATURAL -- In landscape development, the home should look natural in its setting. Evergreens are combined with deciduous shrubs and trees to provide "balance" and all year color says the American Association of Nurserymen.

In general, landscaping can be planned for low maintenance, to last many years. In some cases contracts can be drawn up for maintenance of the whole development over a stated period of years. Home owners will maintain the landscaping better if a plan is provided by a prominent nurseryman. Most leading nurseries have university-trained landscape architects on their staffs and are capable of supplying such plans.

By building both house and land for better living, a development is a much more desirable place in which to live immediately and in the future. The investment is more sound for everyone.

Plan Bath Carefully

Modern bathrooms require just as much or more careful planning as any other part of the house.

Before buying a new home or modernizing an older one, families should take careful stock of their bathroom needs. How many people are there in the household? What ages? What sexes? How many prefer tub baths and how many showers? What provisions should be made for guests or domestic help?

Family comfort and an agreeable home atmosphere depend to a surprising extent on how efficient the plumbing is. Inadequate facilities mean overcrowding, irritated tempers and impatient waiting in line.

Experience proves that families of three or more are being unrealistic if they imagine that one bathroom can adequately serve their needs. A survey of home buyers shows that six out of seven who bought single-bath dwellings now wish they had two or more baths. Most said they would be willing to pay for the additional facilities.

Bathroom planning should be based on a realistic appraisal of the amount and type of traffic they'll be called upon to handle. For instance, in a family with several male members, it's a good idea to have twin lavatories to speed rush-hour shaving. And twin lavatories in their own bathroom will delight teenage girls.

Whole House Cooling

Central air conditioning is moving up fast on the list of features most wanted in new homes.

The trend, noted by builders in the north as well as the south, is reflected by the fact that a record 375,000 residential cooling systems were installed in 1963, points out Charles H. Franke, president of American Furnace Co., St. Louis.

"This represents an amazing 650 per cent increase over the number of installations made in 1953," he said. "That year, the entire industry shipped fewer than 50,000 units."

An estimated 450,000 central systems were expected to be installed in homes and apartments in 1964. By 1970, the rate should be close to a million per year, according to industry estimates.

Where will all these new customers for whole-house cooling come from?

"We anticipate substantial new inroads in the medium priced housing and the conversion markets," the president of American Furnace Company said. "Many builders already are including air conditioning in their $18,000 to $23,000 houses. A few are including cooling in models selling for $15,000 or less."

Some of the reasons for the steady increase in consumer acceptance are the lower installed cost of central air conditioning; exposure to cooling in apartments, theaters, offices, restaurants, and stores; the "side benefits," such as pollen control and dehumidification; and the greater resale potential of an air conditioned house.

"All these factors combined to quadruple the number of centrally air conditioned homes in the United States between 1957 and 1963 -- from 500,000 to more than 2,000,000," Franke said. "You can bet it won't take six years for the next 2,000,000."

Electric Heat Spreads It's Comfort in Area

Electric heating is spreading its comfort to more homes, the electric industry reports.

According to a recent survey, there are now an estimated 2-1/4 million electrically heated homes or apartments in the country, compared to about one-quarter million seven years ago. Spokesmen for the industry forecast that by 1980 the number will grow to at least 19 million.

The Commonwealth Edison - Public Service Co. system at the start of 1965 had more than 14,000 electrically heated dwellings completed or under construction. Over 2,700 of these are in communities served by the company's southern division, of which Joliet is a part.

An important factor in the growth of the flameless brand of comfort is declining utility rates for home heating. The electric company here now has a charge for heating energy of 1.25 cents per kilowatt-hour, or half of what it was in 1958. The bargain rate goes to any customer using electricity for whole-house heating.

The kilowatt-keyed heating systems have several advantages that appeal to householders. Among these are low installation costs; clean quiet operation; elimination of vents and chimneys; and flexible room-by-room control of temperatures.

The baseboard is a popular unit for residential electric heating. It consists of a resistance heating element enclosed in a slim metal housing which has top and bottom openings. Some electric baseboards feature the hydronic principle, using a heat element in a sealed chamber of liquid. No plumbing is required for the unit.

Ceiling cable offers a heating wire is fastened to the ceiling in a wall-to-wall pattern before final plaster coating or dry wall is applied. When finished, the ceiling blankets the room with warmth and the only visible heating device is the thermostat on the wall. A variation of ceiling heat is provided by slim panels that attach to the ceiling surface. Electric wall heaters are effective for warming such locations as the bathroom, entrance area or hallways. Made of glass, metal or ceramic, they may be surface mounted or recessed. Several heating units also can supply central house heating. They include electric furnaces and boilers and the heat pump.

The electric furnace employs modulate heating elements instead of a fire chamber to provide forced-air heat through ducts. It has no heat exchanger and needs no chimney.

Hot water heating is produced by several types of boilers which have resistance elements immersed in tanks or pipes. Some of the electric boilers are small

Meet The Saunders

Whenever you're driving down Cedar Rd. into the Spring Creek Woods area, you'll notice a lovely spacious brick ranch home located on the corner of Walnut and Cedar. This is the home designed and built by Bernarr and Charlotte Saunders. A contractor, Saunders built this home in his spare time.

They have lived in the area six years.

Saunders recently was elected as a Homer Township auditor.

The Saunders have two married daughters. Bonnie is married to Jerry Roberts, a sergeant paratrooper stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky. They have two children, Cindy and Dean.

Betty is married to Dr. Robert Walz. They are living in Chicago and also have two children, Roberta Jean and Beth Ann.

Although the Saunders' home is spacious for two people: daughters, son-in-laws, and children manage to keep it lively. Charlotte's mother, Mrs. Minnie Simenson, has her own bedroom and stays in Spring Creek with them when she is not visiting her sister in California or another daughter in Washington.

Charlotte is adept at anything she sets out to accomplish. She makes many of her own clothes and her hat creations are out of this world. You haven't tasted home baked delicacies until you've tried some of Charlotte's works of art.

If you're in the vicinity, and would like to meet a gracious hostess, stop in and chat to Charlotte.

WINNING ENTRY -- A window near the entry to a home takes on warmth and charm with translucent glass blocks in a random clear pattern. Controlled natural daylight and privacy supplement the glass masonry's features of insulation and carefree maintenance.

DESIGNS HATS -- Mrs. Charlotte Saunders, wife of Bernarr, has found a fascinating hobby in designing her own hats. Whenever you see Charlotte with a hat on, it will probably be one of her own creations. She attended a spring course this year at a millinery school in Chicago. Hat she is working on is a beige knit with a small brim. Creation on the left is a green and beige flowered hat she wore to her daughter's wedding. Hat in the center is a blue velvet cocktail hat with a single black rose. Hat on the right is an all beige flowered hat on beige. She also made the orange and brown silk dress she is wearing. Charlotte leans toward neutral colors.

Chart Installation Of Ceiling Tile

Few housewives would attempt to bake a cake without first reading a recipe, and few men would start on a long drive without consulting a road map.

In the same way, the wise home handyman carefully plans any project long before sawing the first plank or hammering the first nail, says a home remodeling specialist.

"Often, the most important part of a project can be the preliminary planning on paper," says John Gore of Allied Chemical's Barrett Division, a leading producer of building materials.

"For example," says Gore, "installation of ceiling tile should not pose a major problem if a simple chart is ruled into squares, or ordinary graph paper is used to plot the project."

Each of the squares on the chart of graph paper can represent a 12 - by - 12 inch ceiling tile. Measure the ceiling's dimensions and draw the room, showing the jogs or nooks, on the chart.

"This will tell the exact number of tiles needed for the job and also will indicate where tiles may have to be trimmed to fit," he says.

"When using colorfully imprinted decorative tiles to create patterns," Mr. Gore says, "color the corresponding squares on the chart to indicate desired positions."

Wood Tones Added To Provincial Glazes

Another dimension in easy-on furniture finishes ... mellow modern wood effects with paint and glaze ... has been added to the Provincial Color Glaze System originated by The Martin Senour Paint Company and is now available at S. A. Bergman, Inc., Tinley Park.

Called Provincial Color Glaze Wood Tones, they are painted and glazed on old or new, unfinished furniture as well as trim and paneling for subtle shadings and subdued wood patterns.

William Bergman of S. A. Bergman's said the Wood Tones are six true wood colors ... Pecan, Driftwood, Fruitwood, Spicewood, Walnut Tone and Mahogany Tone.

He described the colors as ranging from the light and delicate Driftwood and Fruitwood through the warm middle tones of Pecan and Spicewood to the deep richness of Mahogany and Walnut Tones.

Mr. Bergman said they come in the complete Kit form popularized by the 12 Provincial Color Glazes previously introduced by Martin Senour for antiquing.

The Wood Tones continue the do-it-yourself paint-glaze-wipe technique of the Provincial Color Glaze line and the convenience of not having to remove old finishes.

"The six Provincial Color Glaze Soft Tints and the six Deep Tones have been top items with S. A. Bergman's and we expect the even more versatile WOOD TONES to appeal as strongly to every decoration-conscious homemaker," Mr. Bergman said.

The best way to describe the new Wood Tone finishes is to tell what they are not, according to Mr. Bergman.

"They are not like the old-fashioned wood graining with its raw yellow base coats and dark amber glazes 'combed' to resemble the texture of the wood," he said.

"The mellow shadings and deep, subdued patterns of Wood Tones are achieved by combining two transparent glazes with a coordinated undercoat in a natural treatment. The flexibility of Provincial Color Glaze Wood Tones allows any homemaker to create a spectacular show-piece in almost any style of furniture.

This can make installation of a desired pattern a whole lot easier.

beat the heat with whole-house electric air conditioning for as little as 40¢ a day

If you've had the notion that central air conditioning is something reserved for rich people, you probably haven't checked into electric air conditioning lately.

Example: Since 1955, the installed cost for whole-house electric air-conditioning systems has dropped about $\frac{1}{3}$. This means you can have central air conditioning installed in the average 6-room home for about \$800 to \$900—and make it a haven from heat and humidity.

What do you get besides cool? A healthy family for one thing. With an electronic filter sneezes will be few and far between because over 98% of the pollens are removed from the air. And, since windows stay closed, dust and noise stay outside too. Because you're comfortable, you sleep better and eat better.

What are the dollar-and-cents facts? Installed costs are low and there's less maintenance with an electric air-conditioning system. You can keep a whole 6-room house comfortable for an average of only 40¢ worth of electricity a day . . . based on a 120-day cooling season. (Actual electricity costs may vary depending on house design, construction, location and weather.)

It's easy to finance whole-house electric air conditioning. Lending agencies encourage central system air conditioning on the basis that a house without it will be obsolete more quickly, and will be harder to sell. Because of this, banks and loan companies are willing to extend a loan as a part of a mortgage or offer a short-term home improvement loan when you install a central system.
